Uniquet, a division of the Henry Foundation, a 501c non-profit organization, is a metaphysical and pro-spirituality discussion group. It is not affiliated with or focused on any particular organized religion. The foundation embraces many similarities rather than contradictions between the belief systems in all spiritual faiths & philosophies.

Expect extremely positive energy!

The foundation sponsors classes and retreats featuring guest speakers on a variety of philosophical, metaphysical and spiritual topics with the intentions of promoting positive personal growth for all. The guest speakers bring information that may seem new or refreshing, and a buffet of information develops. Participation is welcome & encouraged in open discussions at all events. The Henry Foundation requests that attendees take what information you like, & leave the rest.
